Series: Habakkuk
Sermon: Yet
Speaker: Jay Perillo

Daily Readings
Monday: Habakkuk 3:1–2 / Psalm 86:1–13
Tuesday: Habakkuk 3:3–15 / Exodus 14:10–31
Wednesday: Habakkuk 3:16 / Psalm 56:1–13
Thursday: Habakkuk 2:1–4 / Isaiah 40:27–31
Friday: Habakkuk 3:17–19 / Lamentations 3:19–33
Saturday: Mark 14:32–42 / 1 Peter 1:3–9

Discussion Questions

1. Habakkuk 3:2 shows us that we can ask God to move while surrendering the outcome to Him. Why can this be difficult, and how can we grow in trusting His will?

2. Read Habakkuk 3:16. What does Habakkuk's response, "Yet I will wait," teach us about trusting God even when we're afraid or uncertain?

3. In Habakkuk 3:17–18, Habakkuk chooses to rejoice in God despite losing everything. How can we find our joy in God rather than our circumstances?

4. Read Lamentations 3:21–23. Why is it important to remember God's faithfulness during difficult seasons?

5. Read Mark 14:36 and 1 Peter 1:3. How do Jesus' surrender and resurrection give us hope when life doesn't go as planned?

6. Habakkuk 3:19 reminds us that God gives us strength to walk through difficult seasons. Where do you need to rely on His strength right now?

Action Step

1. Keep Asking: Bring one specific request before God this week while surrendering the outcome to Him.

2. Remember His Faithfulness: Write down a few ways God has been faithful in your life.

3. Choose Your YET: Complete the statement: "God, I'm asking you to _____, yet I will _____."